OUR JOURNEY

About Classic Moving

Classic Moving is an independent international moving specialist established in Singapore in 2012. Our former CEO and founder Brad Street moved from the UK to Singapore in 2010, and soon realized that there was a need for a more personalized international relocation service provided by expatriates, for expatriates.

Our team comprises hand-picked industry professionals who understand the needs and wants of expatriates relocating overseas. We maintain our leading industry position by continuously developing innovative solutions to become more responsive and fluent in delivering an exceptional customer experience.

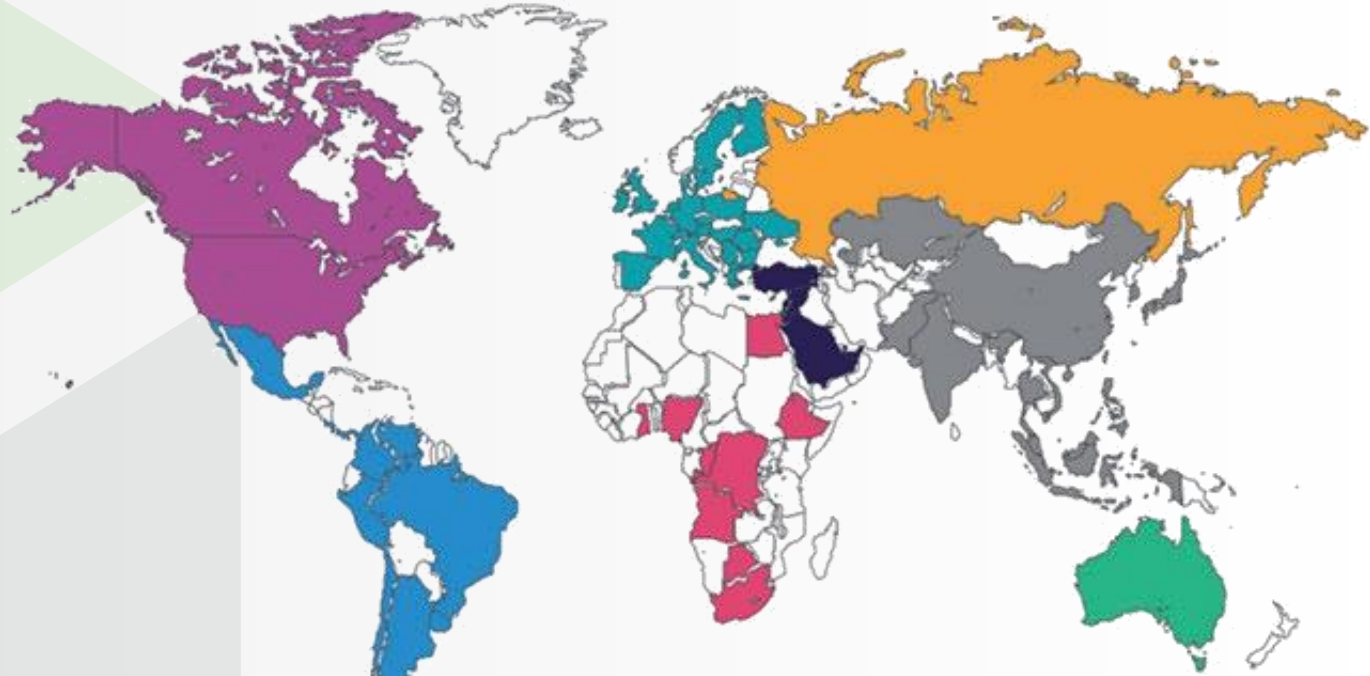

Classic Moving is a part of the CFM Alliance Group of companies. Our parent company provides us with the strength and expertise to cater to all needs within the Moving, Mobility, and Relocation sectors.

Our Services

Moving & Storage Services

There are several moving parts when it comes to coordinating the logistical elements of an international relocation. From start to finish we will act as a single point of contact for your employees; freeing up your time so you can focus on the future of your business

Destination Support Services

Getting acclimatized sooner rather than later and having access to trusted advisors is priceless when it comes to corporate relocation. Our settling in programs have been designed with your employees concerns in mind. Select from our wide range of support services and we'll connect with your employees; answering all of those important questions so that you don't have to.

Corporate Immigration Services

Allow our experienced team to handle complex visa & immigration processes on behalf of your business. With a licence issued and certified by the Ministry Of Manpower (MOM), we have our very own Employment Pass & Work Permit online portal which allows us to fully manage your businesses visa application process. This service will ensure that your business remains compliant from the get-go; we are held accountable by MOM for the entire process, which means that your business won't be.

Classic Moving is proudly recognized as the leading and trusted global mobility partner in Singapore and Malaysia. With years of expertise and a commitment to excellence, we are dedicated to providing seamless, efficient, and tailored relocation services to meet your unique needs.

Program Management

Our experienced relocation consultants manage the individual components that make up your overarching mobility strategy. We understand that every employee relocation is different, our extensive range of services are designed to be fully customizable to meet the needs of both the business and employee.

Business Relocation

Allow us to take care of the installation, packing, moving & disassembly of your existing furniture, so your workforce is back up and running in no time. In addition, our experienced team of office movers in Singapore can help coordinate your office relocation project giving you peace of mind when completing your next business relocation.

Highly recommend Classic Moving. We used them to move from Singapore to Australia and they made the whole process from start to finish stress free. On packing day, the team were so efficient and packed all our belongings with such care. Very happy with the whole experience!

Satisfy Client

I've just moved back to London after 10 years in Singapore. ... All of my goods were received in the same condition in London as they were packed in Singapore. Nothing broken, lost nor damaged! Thank you very much for a pleasant move.

Brenda T
Happy Client

Many thanks to the team at Classic Moving (Singapore) who were 1st class from start to end of our move. Even as our logistics adjusted, Classic Moving were able to flex and accommodate with no impact or stress. This is super important in such moves so a big thanks to the team.
